

Departmental Facilities:

The Department of English offers the students the following facilities. Besides an airy classroom exclusively dedicated to them by the institution, the department has a departmental library catering exclusively to the needs of the students. The departmental Laptop is used by the students for powerpoint projections, departmental presentations and other activities. The teachers and the learners work concertedly to keep the department academically vibrant in every way.