

Institutional Distinctiveness:

Our institution plans to help to promote education among the children of economically weaker section (EWS) in the college surrounding areas. Our students generally visit slums and provide teaching aids like bag, books, pencil and stationary goods to the children residing there. However, this academic year we could not organize any such program due to sudden onset of Corona virus pandemic from March.