

Report of One-day Workshop on Academic Bank of Credit

Date: 11th March 2022

Venue: Institute Seminar Hall

Organizer: IQAC, Dum Dum Motijheel Rabindra Mahavidyalaya

Resource Person: Dr. Diptendu Simlai, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Commerce

Objective:

The objective of the workshop was to introduce the concept of Academic Bank of Credit (ABC) and its implementation in higher education institutions.

Participants:

The workshop was attended by 42 participants from various departments, including faculty members and students.

Highlights:

Dr. Diptendu Simlai introduced the concept of ABC and discussed on

1. Introduction to Academic Bank of Credit
2. Benefits of ABC
3. Implementation of ABC
4. Credit Transfer and Accumulation

Key Takeaways:

1. ABC is a revolutionary concept that allows students to earn credits for various academic and non-academic activities.
2. ABC promotes flexibility and autonomy in learning, enabling students to take ownership of their education.
3. Implementation of ABC requires a robust credit transfer and accumulation system.
4. ABC has the potential to transform the higher education landscape by promoting lifelong learning and skill development.

Conclusion:

The workshop was a success, with participants gaining a deeper understanding of the ABC concept and its implementation. The organizer plans to conduct more workshops and training sessions to promote ABC adoption in higher education institutions.