

Special Lecture 14th June, 2022

Department of History organized a Special lecture on the 250th birth anniversary of Raja Ram Mohan Roy on 14th June, 2022 and the speaker was Dr. Sabyasachi Chatterjee, Professor, Department of History, Kalyani University. His topic was 'Rammohan ke Keno amra ekhon mone korchi?' Dr. Samir Ghosh, Teacher in Charge, chaired the occasion. Students not only from the Department of History but from the other departments also attended the lecture with great enthusiasm. Dr. Chatterjee focused on the contribution of Raja Rammohan Roy on the social and cultural life of the then Bengal. And the relevance of his ideas even today. He pointed out how the ideas of Raja Rammohan Roy were far advanced than his times. The special lecture became lively by a question and answer session after his speech. Students even the Teachers asked a number of questions on the ideas of Rammohan Roy and its importance even today.